

ABBOTSFORD CHILDREN'S THEATRE

To Abbotsford Children's Theatre Supporters:

Abbotsford Children's Theatre is a non-profit theatre group for children ages 8 – 18 years. They are given the opportunity to learn the art of performing in a positive environment.

ACT is looking for financial support for a new project. In Spring 2009, ACT is proud to present the debut of 'AWAKE AND DREAMING' written by Vancouver author Kit Pearson.

'AWAKE AND DREAMING' is the powerful story of a nine year old girl growing up in poverty with her young mother on the streets of Vancouver. The play discusses imagination, friendship, the importance of books, and how we sometimes use our fantasy life to escape a difficult reality.

'AWAKE AND DREAMING' will be scripted & directed by ACT alumni, Megan Mackenzie (UFV Grad 2008) and Cassie Silva (UFV Grad 2007). They will be working with University of the Fraser Valley (Theatre and English Dept) as well as the author, Northwest Artists Management and Penguin Books in the writing process.

'AWAKE AND DREAMING' is on the school curriculum for grades 5 – 8 and will be performed in Abbotsford for schools and for the public. We will also be presenting this production at UFV's annual Director's Theatre Festival in April 2009 held in Chilliwack. Casting will be from ACT members and UFV Theatre students.

Our goal is to raise $3,500 to cover the costs of writing the play plus royalties. We value any contribution you can make to this project. Thank you for your consideration.
